Keeping in touch

From May 2018, the laws governing the way charities like CPRE Wiltshire communicate with their members will be overhauled as the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) supersedes the existing Data Protection Act 1998. This won't have a significant impact on our members and contacts as the new legislation's definition of 'Legitimate Interest' will allow us to keep you informed of our work without requiring you to 'opt-in'. Most importantly, the new regulations will not weaken our pledge to never sell your data or share it with anyone outside of CPRE.
